Friday 8th March Normanville Kiosk and Café

Come along to the wonderful Normanville Kiosk and Café. Enjoy the spectacular views positioned at the foot of the jetty on the picturesque beach. A lovely lunch with the option of a soft drink or a coffee is included.

We have limited seats on the bus, so let us know as soon as possible.

Time: 12 noon – 2.00pm

Cost: TBA - see note below

Friday 22nd March Signal Point Gallery, Goolwa

We'll have a stroll through the beautiful Signal Point Art Gallery and take a look at a wonderful exhibition called 'About Time' (and enjoy the water views too!). A light brunch of local Fleurieu produce will be included at the Wharf Barrel Shed in the gallery.

Limit to 8 people on the bus, so let us know as soon as possible. Thank you!

Time: 10.00am – 1:00pm

Cost: TBA - see note below

Thursday 14th March Southern Fleurieu Historical Museum, Port Elliot

Let's take a wander through yesteryear! Enjoy an interesting and informative morning at the Port Elliot Southern Fleurieu Historical Museum. This museum is unique in that its diverse range of exhibits cover the many facets of history in the making across the Southern Fleurieu Peninsula. Morning tea will be provided.

Time: 10.00am – 12 noon

Cost: TBA - see note below

Thursday 28th March St Louis Friendship and Activities

We would love you to come along and try a new St Louis activity. We will be hosting a get together which will include a range of activities and discussions at the Uniting Church Hall, opposite the St Louis Victor Harbor office. A chance to get together, just like the St Louis Flourishing event last year. We'll enjoy a light brunch/tea and coffee.

Time: 11:00am – 1:00pm

Cost: TBA - see note below

Call Lisa at the Victor Harbor office on 8552 1481 to reserve your spot today or to find out about any of our activities.

Please Note: Prices to be advised due to legislative changes
